Senior medical imaging executive joins Calgary Scientific to lead global sales and marketing

Medical imaging veteran to lead next phase of market growth

Calgary, AB - November 12, 2008 - Calgary Scientific Inc., a leading innovator in enterprise advanced visualization solutions, announced today that Randy Rountree has joined the organization as Executive Vice President of global sales and marketing. Rountree will lead Calgary Scientific's world-wide sales, marketing and business development with a focus on expanding OEM partner and direct sales channels.

A seasoned industry veteran, Rountree brings to Calgary Scientific an extensive history of executive leadership and broad experience in medical imaging. He served over 25 years with Philips Medical in various senior capacities, most recently as the Sr. Vice President of Philips Imaging Systems for North America. Rountree has a solid reputation in the industry for building top performing customer focused sales and marketing organizations.

"Randy Rountree has an outstanding track-record of developing successful sales and marketing strategies that focus on delivering win-win partnerships and high-value customer solutions," said Byron Osing, CEO of Calgary Scientific. "In addition, Rountree's significant medical imaging industry knowledge will greatly contribute to our overall product strategy. With our ResolutionMD™ product line now gaining increased attention in the marketplace, sales, marketing and overall leadership from a seasoned executive like Rountree will be instrumental in this next phase of Calgary Scientific's growth, and our organizational transition to a hard driving sales, marketing, and business development focused organization."

"Medical Imaging Specialists continue to search for improvements in efficiencies and access to the most advanced visualization tools," said Rountree. "Calgary Scientific is clearly focused on addressing these challenges with its leading-edge enterprise web platform and sophisticated clinical applications roadmap. I have always believed in a customer centric organization and continue to focus on strong personal relationships as the cornerstone for business success. The team at Calgary Scientific is strongly aligned with this view and we anticipate this philosophy will be reflected in our results."
